49.0% of Korean Americans are foreign born.

12.0% of Korean Americans speak English less than "very well."

41.9% of Korean Americans are male.

58.1% of Korean Americans are female.

2.63 is the average Korean American family size.

98.8% of Korean Americans are at least high school graduates.

76.1% of Korean American households are non-family households.

korean americans in DC

demographic information and statistics*

The homeownership rate for Korean Americans is 41.4%.

14.4% of Korean Americans live in poverty.

The per capita income of Korean Americans is $44,778.

The unemployment rate for Korean Americans is 1.7% and 21.9% are not in the labor force.

This information is provided as part of OAPIA's technical assistance efforts to District Agencies covered by the Language Access Act of 2004. For more information about OAPIA's Language Access efforts please visit www.apia.dc.gov and click on the Language Access link.

Government of the District of Columbia
Vincent C. Gray, Mayor

Mayor's Office on Asian & Pacific Islander Affairs
Soohyun "Julie" Koo, Director

*Data from 2006-2010 American Community Survey 5-year Estimates.

DC Mayor's Office on Asian and Pacific Islander Affairs | 441 4th Street, NW, #721N Washington, DC 20001 |www.apia.dc.gov | For More Information Contact Neel Saxena at neel.saxena@dc.gov