chinese americans in DC

demographic information and statistics*

This information is provided as part of OAPIA's technical assistance efforts to District Agencies covered by the Language Access Act of 2004. For more information about OAPIA's Language Access efforts please visit www.apia.dc.gov and click on the Language Access link.

Government of the District of Columbia
Vincent C. Gray, Mayor

Mayor's Office on Asian & Pacific Islander Affairs
Soohyun "Julie" Koo, Director

48.6% of Chinese Americans are foreign born.

19.7% of Chinese Americans speak English less than "very well."

42.2% of Chinese Americans are male.

57.8% of Chinese Americans are female.

2.96 is the average Chinese American family size.

89.6% of Chinese Americans are at least high school graduates.

67.9% of Chinese American households are non-family households.

The homeownership rate for Chinese Americans is 43.2%.

18.6% of Chinese Americans live in poverty.

The per capita income of Chinese Americans is $39,043.

The unemployment rate for Chinese Americans is 3.7% and 32.2% are not in the labor force.

*Data from 2006-2010 American Community Survey 5-year Estimates.