

53.4% of Filipino Americans are foreign born.

10.6% of Filipino Americans speak English less than “very well.”

45.2% of Filipino Americans are male.

54.8% of Filipino Americans are female.

2.48 is the average Filipino American family size.

91.1% of Filipino Americans are at least high school graduates.

62.2% of Filipino American households are non-family households.

filipino americans in DC

demographic information and statistics*

This information is provided as part of OAPIA’s technical assistance efforts to District Agencies covered by the Language Access Act of 2004. For more information about OAPIA’s Language Access efforts please visit www.apia.dc.gov and click on the Language Access link.

The homeownership rate for Filipino Americans is 30.8%.

9.7% of Filipino Americans live in poverty.

The per capita income of Filipino Americans is $47,341.

The unemployment rate for Filipino Americans is 1.1% and 12.7% are not in the labor force.

Government of the District of Columbia
Vincent C. Gray, Mayor

Mayor’s Office on Asian & Pacific Islander Affairs
Soohyun “Julie” Koo, Director

*Data from 2006-2010 American Community Survey 5-year Estimates.